PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Thanks for the memories!

Well, the time has come to say goodbye. After two years as the President of the CFUW White Rock/Surrey, it's time to hand on the gavel to our new President, Sue Foley-Currie. To say that you're in capable hands would be an understatement – Sue constantly astounds me with her depth of knowledge about policies and politics.

I'd like to thank the people that made my job easy – from the people that “showed me the ropes” when I was a Vice President, particularly Susan Wingate and Sandy Mackenzie, to all the individuals that have served on our Board during the past two years. Elizabeth Bordeaux, in particular, stepped into the breach when we lacked a Secretary, and did a stellar job. Thank you all so much for your service – I hope that I always remembered to tell you how much I appreciated your help.

Then there are those “ex officio” members – Veronika Bichler, who does such a great job on the newsletters, and who also took on the job of developing and running our website. We spent a lot of time creating content and testing links, and it all works! The latest development on the website is the “Members Only” tab. You have to have a password in order to get in (which we'll send out separately) and it will contain things we will need to use all the time, like our Resource Manual.

Monica von Kursell does a great job on our members' directory every year and she also held several events at her home this year for new members, where they could get to know other people in the club.

Also, Lois Hunter has been a great help. As our Archivist, Lois has a great wealth of information and she's been more than generous with her assistance over the years. She also took on, singlehandedly, the coffee sales that have benefited the Bursary Foundation.

I'd also like to thank the Chairs of the Bursary Foundation, Joanne Cunningham and Carolyn Oram, and the members of the Bursary Board, who welcomed me to their meetings, and allowed me to participate in all their discussions. We are all members of the Bursary Foundation as well as members of the White Rock/Surrey club. The Bursary Foundation Board is doing a wonderful job for all of us.

It was my pleasure to represent the club at the past two BC Council conferences, including the one last month in Abbotsford. There is so much to be learned from the other clubs around the country, and they are so generous in sharing their information and experiences. Our club was well represented at this conference, as we agreed to run the "Silent Auction" for the Abbotsford club. The coordinators from our club will provide you with more details, but it was a job well done, by individuals that were well organized, and cool under fire.

Timing is everything, and my retirement from the position of President coincides precisely with the start of berry season on the farm. There are poodles to be clipped, alpacas to be shorn, berries to be picked and jam to be made. So without any further ado, I'll fade to black.

Thank you for allowing me to serve as your President for the past two years. - Trudy Handel -

BC Council AGM Overview - April 22 - 24, 2016 (by Diane Salter Menzo)

Intersecting Journey

Here are some highlights offered by members of our club who attended the BC Council Conference.

The 2016 BC Council AGM was held in Abbotsford at the Ramada Inn and Conference Centre. The conference was attended by 103 members from clubs throughout BC, including 12 members of our club. Our club's attendees were both participants and 'worker bees' as our club had volunteered to run this year's silent auction fundraiser for the CFUW Charitable Trust.

Kudos to all of our hard working members who volunteered before the event for the auction, as well as a special thanks to the energetic on-site team who tag-teamed to set up and run the event on Friday 21st, from 11 am - till 9:30 pm, and Saturday 22nd, from 7:30 am till 6:30 pm. The on-site team included: Diane Salter Menzo, Sue Foley-Currie, Lois Hunter, Louisa Kozey, Penny Harrington, Trudy Handel, Lori Beddow, Helen Christiansen, Mary Fran Bateman, Anne-Marie Steenge, Marjorie Foxall and Sylvia Riddell.

At the end of the day, on Saturday, we were very tired but rewarded when the final tally of sales showed that our club's collective efforts had raised $2,562 from over 100 items donated from all the B.C. Clubs for the CFUW National Charitable Trust Fund. This was $592 more than the amount raised at last year's silent auction, even though there were fewer overall participants at this year's AGM. Many thanks to all for the team effort from our club and for the many donations and purchases from all of the clubs.

The conference began on Friday afternoon, April 22nd. Several of our members participated in afternoon tours.

At the reception on Friday evening, Linda Russell, President of BC Council, welcomed participants to the conference. A drum ceremony welcomed guests at the beginning of the reception followed by guest speakers, including the Mayor of Abbotsford. During the reception, we were also treated to a beautifully performed recital by four young and extremely talented musicians from the Abbotsford area, called 'The Yarrow String Quartet'.

On Saturday morning, participants at the business meeting were presented with an emergency resolution on BC Youth Aging out of Foster Care that had been proposed by the Vancouver Club. Following a lot of discussion, the resolution was passed. The closing item of the morning meeting agenda provided time for the presidents of attending clubs to give very brief highlights of activities that their clubs had engaged in during the year. From the brief snippets that we heard it was clear that there are some great lessons to be learned from our fellow clubs and many of us wished that this segment had been longer. Perhaps in the future, we can think of ways to network between clubs in BC during the year, so we can continue to share and learn from each other.

During lunch, a panel of three speakers (Sidrah Ahmad; Satwinder Bains; Vivienne Chin) shared their life stories illustrating that, although their backgrounds were very different, their experiences showed similar outcomes in women's lives when they are free to make a choice. Following lunch, participants had many choices of workshops to attend. Two of the workshops provided an opportunity to build upon the ideas from the inspiring lunch panel to allow participants to discuss common goals, challenges and initiatives in our clubs. A number of potential action items were put forward for future consideration by clubs in planning programs and activities that could help us move CFUW towards better understanding and inclusion.

The Saturday night banquet included a buffet dinner and entertainment put on by the "Bhangra Dance Group" from the Abbotsford Indo Canadian community as well as a mesmerizing performance by the Korean Hurricane Drummers after dinner.

Following an interfaith service on Sunday morning, the final plenary was a presentation and discussion led by Joyce Preston and Melinda Markey from a community based organization called the Mom2Mom Child Poverty Initiative. This organization is focused on improving developmental outcomes for children living in Vancouver's inner city.

- Bravo to Tina Hinds, Program Chair of the BC Council AGM Conference in Abbotsford and her organizing committee for providing participants with such a great opportunity for entertainment, learning, fundraising and networking. -

Gardens and Bees Tour Friday April 22

(by Penny Harrington)

The Abbotsford Club hosted us to a CircleFarm Tour that highlighted the lushness of the valley at its spring time best while showcasing a variety of agricultural activities and the history of the Sumas area.

Who knew that the 30,000 acres comprising Sumas Prairie was once Sumas Lake? The completion of the Vedder Canal and the draining of the lake was a massive effort undertaken in the early 1920s to create more fertile farm land for settlers.

Another note of cultural interest was that The Gur Sikh Temple (Gurdwara) of Abbotsford is the oldest existing Sikh temple in North America. This makes it currently (2010) the only Sikh temple outside of India and Pakistan that is designated as a national historic site. This anecdote was especially significant as the theme of the AGM was "Intersecting Journeys".

Our first stop along the tour was at Campbell's Gold Honey Farm and Meadery where we had the opportunity to enjoy a honey wine tasting and sampled creamed and flavoured honeys. "Campbell's Gold Floral Blend honey is created onsite at the farm and on neighbouring farms." It was a lip-smacking good visit!

At Tanglebank Gardens the owner Brenda Falk potting plants

Next along the tour was Tanglebank Gardens and Bramble's Bistro, a "boutique" style nursery situated in beautiful rural West Abbotsford. For anyone interested in a lovely drive/outing, Tanglebank is a wonderful destination. Owner Brenda Falk demonstrated a space savvy small garden idea while sharing helpful hints including colour choices, textures and what to look for in potting soil. Afterwards, we browsed the gift shop and enjoyed a well-deserved cuppa' and goodies in the Bistro.

The tour was a great way to jump-start the weekend; meeting out of town members and simply enjoying a sampling of what the Abbotsford area has to offer.

OUR MEMBERS

The Club would like to extend a warm welcome to our newest members:

Selma Swaab

I was born in Amsterdam, Holland, and grew up in Vancouver.

After graduating from Lord Byng Secondary, I attended UBC and received a MA degree in Political Science in 1973.

I almost immediately started off my 35 year career with BC Corrections as a Probation Officer working initially in Surrey with youth and then with adults in Delta. I worked as a policy analyst in Victoria at our headquarters office for 8 years where I also took a year's secondment to another division within the Ministry of Attorney General to work with victim serving agencies (dealing mostly with violence against women).

My next assignment was to be the Warden at the Alouette River Correctional Centre in Maple Ridge which was then a 150 bed medium security correctional centre for substance abusing men.

From Maple Ridge, I transferred to the Surrey Pretrial Services Centre shortly after it opened in 1990.

After a year, I transferred to the BC Board of Parole where again I did policy analyst and training work and where I worked with public appointees in the role of Board members. Subsequently, several projects emerged with the Corrections Branch that allowed me to develop standardized, province-wide offender risk assessment instruments and rehabilitative programs for offenders in custody as well as those under supervision in the community.

Lynn Robertson

I am pleased to have joined this organization and would like to introduce myself to you.

My name is Lynn Robertson. I am a mother to three daughters and grandmother of five grandkids, ranging in ages three to thirteen. Having all of my family living close to me is a special gift, and I am fortunate to be able to spend time with them as these years seem to go slipping by. I love traveling, gardening, walking and visiting with friends and family.

My working career of almost 35 years was in Surrey School District, and I retired in 2006. I began my career as a teacher of young children and eventually moved into the world of administration and leadership.

My educational philosophy of respecting and honouring each individual from where they are and helping them discover and enhance their abilities and capabilities carried with me into my role as principal, Director of Instruction and Assistant Superintendent. I believe that I emulate this in all aspects of my life. My friends and family are so very important to me and I value and cherish them all.

I look forward to meeting the many women in this organization who have a sense of community, and I hope to contribute in some way.

Marlene Howard

1936 - 2016

The club is much saddened by the loss of Marlene Howard, who will be greatly missed by her many bridge pals, her club book group, the Membership Committee and the children in the One-to-One Literacy program. In addition, we will all miss her warm smile and friendly greeting at the registration table at every meeting.

Marlene was born and brought up in North Battleford, Saskatchewan, where she was an honour student at high school. She later attended the University of Saskatchewan and obtained a BSc in chemistry and a master's degree in Educational Psychology. Her work experience included several years at the National Research Council in Saskatoon, and later, after receiving her master's, a second career with the Saskatoon School Board, where she stayed until her retirement. Marlene was married, with two children, Douglas and Jennifer, and it was her love of parenting that inspired her to go into educational psychology.

After her retirement, Marlene moved to the coast and became involved both in CFUW White Rock/Surrey and in the White Rock First United Church. She was an active and vibrant member of our club, where her intelligence and sense of humour made her great company. She had an infectious laugh and the rare ability to laugh at her own foibles.

Her family was always very important in Marlene's life: Douglas and Jennifer, three grandchildren, two sisters and a large extended family. She was also an animal lover, and her small white dog, who was adorable but rather naughty, was her constant companion in recent years.

We send sincere condolences to Marlene's family. We will miss her.

(by Elizabeth Bordeaux)

THANK YOU

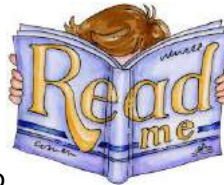

Excerpts from an E mail from Mary Ann Rainer,
(received and shared by Joanne Cunningham)

"Thank you especially for the lovely luncheon. It was a lovely way to say goodbye to such a wonderful group of women. I will miss you all I hope you don't mind that I shared the gorgeous flowers with Jean. I haven't been sending out any mail up to now since I immediately caught pneumonia after arriving here. The doctor has ordered me to bed and so the boxes and mess of unpacking will just have to wait. Our kids have been a great help! So many thanks for all you have done to make my leaving CFUW so nice."

ONE-ON-ONE LITERACY GROUP

(submitted by Carolyn Oram)

Another school year is winding down!

This means that the third session of One-on-One comes to an end on May 26. The year has been very successful and all the volunteers have enjoyed working with the children at Peace Arch Elementary and H.T. Thrift Elementary schools.

At this time, we are staying with two schools as our former school, Sunnyside, is very overcrowded and unable to accommodate our program.

We are having a Volunteers Potluck Luncheon on June 1 at Mary Fran Bateman's home. This will bring our year to a close and we look forward to beginning again in the fall.

CFUW NATIONAL - NEWS UPDATE

- Our CFUW National Office is located on Cooper Street, Ottawa. Staff includes an Executive Director, Member Services, Fellowships Program Manager, an Advocacy Coordinator, and a Bookkeeper-Software Developer. For 2014-15 Operations and Programs took 47.9% of the budget, GWI dues took 22.3% of the CFUW National budget (via memberships dues from all of the Clubs and Canadian Dollars converted to Swiss Francs), the previous AGM took 19.6%, Governance 9.6% and Capital Expenses 0.6%. For 2015-16 the budget is a deficit one and the Reserve fund had to be depleted to cover to balance it.
- Years ago CFUW and the American Association of University Women (AAUW) were able twice (1950 and 1997) to negotiate with the then IFUW (prior to name change to GWI) for an alleviation in dues. Thus since 1997 – there was a 40% cap of dues for CFUW and AAUW for the then IFUW. However AAUW withdrew from IFUW and that put additional pressure on finance for IFUW plus the other NFAs (national organizations) still paying dues. Several years ago two other NFAs withdrew. March 2015, CFUW asked GWI for a long term solution (this request was also made to IFUW in 1997) and CFUW is now at the 40% cap for what GWI receives as dues from NFAs. As well GWI dues are paid in Swiss francs and even with buying them ahead due to the lower Canadian dollar – CFUW in 2015 with the $172,697 needed for GWI had a CFUW budget shortfall projection of $8,700 which raised a red flag about the future. The CFUW's GWI dues needed for 2016 without any increase until 2017 would be $176,042.
- Canada has been a part of GWI (formerly International Federation of University Women/IFUW) since 1919 as a founding member or NFA with Great Britain and the United States. Now – 97 years later – CFUW is pondering as are all Club Executives-Boards and members as to what to do next regarding GWI dues (will they be raised and by how much?) and CFUW Clubs across the country are voting on what to instruct their representative at the CFUW National AGM the end of June re: a bylaw amendment to withdraw from GWI – put forward from the St. Thomas, ON Club. The vote and discussions stem from a concern that GWI may have to raise dues from NFAs by 2017 for 2017-2019/three years/17-35 Swiss francs per capita and on individual members and will vote on it at their AGM this August. The "it" is an increase for CFUW dues for every member across Canada – and "it" is a best estimate question – would it be $20 or even more and would that solve the GWI financial-still new start up mode challenges from the changeover from being IFUW?
- There also is a concern that there might be a near future annual update of GWI fees in relationship to the latest World Bank GNI per capita and Human Development Index – via a revised GWI constitution. And would an increase in GWI dues via each CFUW member affect membership and growth for clubs and national? Other issues raised have been that if CFUW withdraws membership from GWI that it might result in the demise of GWI which was only reinvigorated from being IFUW a few years ago; that a CFUW vote in June is premature as the GWI report on its turnaround strategy is not until August; and also another issue raised was that the dues increase should be separate from a membership issue in GWI. In the end it is all up to CFUW members and the June CFUW AGM.
- Motion 2 (Proposed by CFUW St. Thomas): Withdrawal of CFUW from Graduate Women International formerly known as International Federation of University Women (IFUW) as a National Federation or Association (NFA) member.

GWI (formerly IFUW) Update

- Canada has 10 votes at the next GWI AGM in August as CFUW is 10% of the GWI membership.
- The GWI Board of Officers and Committee Conveners are elected every three years by GWI members at the General Assembly (this year in August in Cape Town, South Africa). This 32nd Triennial conference portion offers interdisciplinary seminars and workshops, opportunities for networking and international friendships.
- There are four paid staff – Executive Director, two Program Officers and a Communications-Advocacy Officer. The office is in Geneva, Switzerland (also site of other NGOs). In 2014, GWI held $518,265 in investments which it has been drawing from annually with some suggestions that it is a 15% annual withdrawal, plus some other restricted funds, salaries were $421,475 plus another some $43,000 for bookkeeping, the office lease was $31,019 and the accumulated deficit was $100,575.
- Membership in GWI has been changing due to different categories and options as well as some new partnerships and approaching firms for donations related to items e.g. watches. The traditional option for funds by dues is via a federation or NFA such as CFUW and there are 62 NFAs or countries. There is the independent member option (not a member of an NFA) for some 100 Swiss francs per individual although there is a reduced rate for some – overall representing 100 countries. Last is something very new – the Regional Groups and although there is not one for North America – there are five regional groups Africa (FUWA), Asia (UWA), Europe (UWE), Latin America (FLAMU) and the Pacific (PGWNet). GWI itself is in special consultation with the United National Economic and Social Council (ECOSOC) and as an NGO maintains official relations with the United National Educational, Scientific and Cultural Organization (UNESCO), as well as with the International Labour Organization (ILO).
- May 2, GWI's Executive Director led a panel at the World Summit on the Information Society (WSIS), the world's largest annual event on Information Communication Technology for Development – with GWI advocating for girls and women to have a greater access to education in ICT as well as advanced training and employment.
